

Emceeing & Town Hall Facilitation

Create Connection.
Drive Clarity.
Elevate the Experience.

Every great event, whether an all-hands town hall or a multi-day conference, deserves more than just a timekeeper. It requires a strategic and engaging presence that sets the tone, maintains momentum, and ensures every voice is heard.

Jenny Reilly brings over 25 years of leadership experience to the mic—supporting CEOs, senior teams, and entire organizations through high-stakes conversations, milestone events, and company-wide communications. Whether guiding Q&A sessions, introducing speakers, or bridging complex topics with clarity and poise, Jenny ensures your event is as impactful as it is well-run.

Emceeing for Internal and External Events

Jenny is a polished, personable emcee who can:

- Open and close your event with energy and professionalism
- Introduce speakers and keep transitions smooth
- Tie key messages together to reinforce strategic themes
- Handle live Q&A, panel moderation, and unscripted moments with ease and confidence

Who This Is For

- CEOs hosting all-hands meetings or quarterly updates
- Companies seeking a professional host for retreats or offsites
- Event organizers needing a confident and experienced MC for conferences or milestone events

✓ Why It Matters

Done right, facilitated sessions and MC support:

- Strengthen trust between leadership and staff
- Improve transparency and clarity around company priorities
- Encourage dialogue that aligns teams and fosters engagement
- Transform routine updates into high-impact experiences
